

THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1871.

Hon. James B. Beck has returned to his home in Lexington from Alabama, where he went as a member of the Congressional Committee for the purpose of examining into alleged Ku-Klux disorders. He reports everything orderly and peaceable, notwithstanding the charges to the contrary, and brings the evidence of the U. S. officers stationed there to sustain him.

The Grand Duke Alexis, son of the Emperor of Russia, whose arrival in this country is looked for daily, is not, as has been stated in some quarters, the heir apparent of the Russian throne. He is the third son, and his eldest brother, who married the Princess Dagmar, of Denmark, has an heir, which makes his prospect of being Emperor of Russia very slim. Under a law of Russia, the heir apparent to the throne is forbidden to leave the empire.

Who will say hereafter that editors are not a practical set? It was Hon. Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, who conceived the idea of a soup-house in Chicago, which makes six thousand people a day happy. To extol the genius which could originate such an idea would be superfluous. The establishment is superbly fitted up, considering the short space of time it has been in preparation. That eminent city councilman Si Keck, is superintendent, his experience as proprietor of a bone-boiling establishment at home having well fitted him for the post.

We had the pleasure of a visit from our friend Cradlock, of the Time Kentuckian, yesterday. It was Byron, who, apostrophizing the ocean, said:

"Time leaves no wrinkle on thy azure brow" and in looking at the well-preserved and rejuvenated appearance of this veteran, the quotation came to our mind spontaneously. We have but one opinion on the subject, and that is, that some girl is fooling herself powerfully in letting such a clever bachelor stay single.

The Lisa Weber troupe.—This very attractive troupe will appear at Major Hall tonight, for one night only. The performance will consist of the farce of the Dead Shot and the Burlesque Extravaganza, entitled Erani. The lovers of this style of drama will not fail to be on hand. For particulars see advertisement elsewhere.

Coal.—Prices advancing.—The stock of coal in the Covington yards is running low, and prices of all qualities are steadily advancing. Monday Youghiogheny was selling at 23 cents a bushel, or $7 a load. There is no immediate prospect of a rise in the Ohio, and the probability is that prices will be further advanced. With cold weather advancing, a scarcity of coal is not a cheerful thing to contemplate.

See proclamations elsewhere of Gov. Leslie, offering a reward of five hundred dollars each for the apprehension of Charles Walters and Wm. Walters, charged with the murder of Willis Banton in Pulaski county in November, 1869; also five hundred dollars for the apprehension of Jacob Spoonamore indicted in the Washington circuit court for the murder of Thomas Coulter, in November, 1865; also two hundred dollars each for the apprehension and conviction of the persons connected with the shooting of Miss Sanders in Jessamine county, on the 30th ult.

We have heard many complaints about the obstruction of the sidewalks by boxes, and call the attention of merchants and others to the fact that there is a stringent ordinance on the subject, which will be enforced if disregarded.

We are gratified to learn that our young friend Albert B. Crittenden, whose appointment as cadet in the Naval Academy we announced several weeks since, passed a satisfactory examination, and has been admitted into the Academy at Annapolis.

The Grand Lodge of Masons for the State of Kentucky has been in session in Louisville since Monday, is largely attended, and most harmonious in its deliberations. It will adjourn to-day.

Faxon, of the Paducah Kentuckian, says he would rather be a door-keeper for a side-show where there was an educated hog, than a fat woman, and numberless big snags than to be secretary and director of an agricultural association.

If your plumbing needs repairing, go to Oscar Seeley, the only practical plumber in Frankfort, St. Clair street.

The Morganfield Advocate, which was started during the late State canvass as a campaign paper, has been revived as a permanent enterprise, and takes its place in the list of new journals. It is Democratic, of course, and presents, in matter as well as form, a very good appearance. We wish it every success.

We give elsewhere the full list of churches, hotels, banks, and other public buildings destroyed in Chicago, which affords a better idea of the sweeping destruction of the fire than anything we have seen.

The great railroad bridge between Newport and Cincinnati is rapidly approaching completion. The main or channel span will be completed by the 1st of November, and it is believed that trains will be crossing by the 1st of January.

The broom-corn market in New York is agitated in consequence of heavy losses of stock in Chicago, and the reported short crop everywhere. Prices have advanced full fifty percent.

For cheap pumps and hydrants, go to Seeley's, St. Clair street.

The McCracken county fair, held at Paducah last week, was largely attended, and was a success.

NEWSPAPER SQUABBLE.—Tardew & Co., who lately started The South in New York—a very good paper by-the-by—have been assailed by E. E. Overall, who lately published a paper with the same name in Memphis. He claims exclusive right to the title, and says he was about reviving his paper in New York. He must be a lively genius, this man Overall. It hasn't been but a short time since he sent us an advertisement saying he wished to purchase a paper in the Blue-grass region of this State.

The Lexington Press says: "The new crop of small grain has come up well, and is looking very promising. The area sown in this and adjoining counties will be exceedingly small, on account of the continued failures in the crop here for several consecutive years. Barley and rye will be sown principally, wheat occurring only in crops of five to ten acres for home consumption."

COLMAN'S RURAL WORLD.—This reliable agricultural journal visits us weekly and richly merits its large and increasing patronage. Every farmer, fruit grower, and stock breeder in the West would be greatly benefited by reading it. It is published at $2 per annum. Address, Norman J. Colman, St. Louis Mo.

Oh! "Uncle" Jimmy Bryan, says the Paducah Kentuckian, now in his eightieth year, is attending the fair. He walked from home Wednesday, a distance of 32 miles, in preference to being bothered with a horse. He seems hale and hearty, and good for twenty years more of active life.

A CHALLENGE.—$100 to $500 dollars. Open to any person in Frankfort that can produce as skillful a specimen of plumbing (their own make) as done at Seeley's, St. Clair street.

President Grant was in Boston on Monday, and took part in the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner-stone of the new post-office. On Tuesday he went to Bangor, Maine.

Gen. Sherman, accompanied by his chief of staff, sails next week with Rear Admiral Elden, on the Wahash, for Europe, where he will spend some time looking into the military systems of the principal nations.

In view of the proposed resignation of Hon. R. H. Stanton, the Flemingsburg Democrat suggests the name of Judge W. F. Rott as a suitable candidate for circuit judge.

The Lexington Gazette says that a bold stream of water has been struck in the large cistern being dug by the city on Broadway, which is apparently ample to furnish the whole city with water.

Three negroes, charged with robbing the Nicholasville toll-gate and shooting Miss Sanders, on the night of the 30th of September, are undergoing their examination at Nicholasville.

FANCY BRAND.—Flour manufactured at the Valley Mills in this city, when inspected at Louisville, was branded fancy. Specimens of flour from these mills have been sent to the Georgia State Fair.

There was a heavy snow-storm on Sunday at points in Wyoming Territory, along the Pacific Railroad, the snow reaching a depth of several feet, and delaying the trains.

This time it is a distributing office of the Freedman's Bureau, and his name is Gen. Ballock. The sum involved is a quarter of a million.

The fishing is good near at hand. Biss are caught daily on the banks of the river within the city limits, and at the mouth of Benson.

For all plumbing or gas fitting, call on Oscar Seeley, St. Clair street. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The Bowling Green Democrat favors the building of a railroad from St. Louis to Knoxville, taking Bowling Green in its route.

A complete and full assortment of fancy and staple groceries at Jas. M. Todd's corner Main and Ann streets.

Our friend Len J. Cox, of this county, has been spending some time in Kansas and enjoying himself hunting buffalo.

Admiral Porter expects a war with China, and wants the Asiatic squadron increased.

Nowadays, when a Western editor is burnt out and wants to purchase a new press and materials, he telegraphs to New York and has his eight-cylinder lie on its way to him next day. In the beginning of the century Frankfort was the printers' headquarters, and furnished the Franklin press (so named) after our county doubtless to all new and aspiring papers. The printing material—particularly paper from the mill at Great Crossings—was furnished by Georgetown.

These facts we gather from a Vincennes correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, who says:

THE FIRST NEWSPAPER

Ever published west of the Miami and north of the Ohio river, was the Western Sun, which began to "shine for all" at Vincennes, on the 4th of July, 1804, under the editorship and proprietorship of Eliza Stout, who removed from Kentucky to the Indiana Territory for the purpose of starting it. He purchased his press and type in Frankfort, Kentucky, early in that year, and shipped these, with a small supply of printing material, in a small boat, on the Kentucky river, for Vincennes. The publication of this paper was continued by Mr. Stout until 1815, when he was appointed postmaster, and sold out his paper. The publication of the Western Sun, for many years, was carried on under many difficulties and disadvantages. Judge Law says that all the printing materials had to be transported from Georgetown, Kentucky, that being the nearest point where they could be procured. And there being no public conveyances in those days, Mr. Stout was for many years compelled to transport all his printing materials on horseback, taking with him three horses, one for riding and two for packing. The regular files of this paper from the start are preserved.

GENERAL LOSSES—PARTIAL LIST OF THE PUBLIC HALLS, BLOCKS, BUILDINGS, CHURCHES, CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS, ACADEMIES, SCHOOLS, &c., DESTROYED BY THE FIRE.

(From the Chicago Journal, Friday.)

Now that the smoke of the burnt district has cleared away, and the general confusion, at first so confounding, has very considerably subsided, we are able to take a bird's-eye view of the general loss, which we give below:

PUBLIC HALLS AND BLOCKS, &c.

Oldest Stock Insurance Company in the United States.

Organized A. D. 1794.

ARE YOU INSURED?

This is a question of more than ordinary significance, now that nearly all the prominent Insurance Companies of the land have been swept away by the burning of Chicago.

Companies rightly deemed perfectly sound a week ago, have been swamped by losses exceeding the entire amount of their assets. Many of the most prominent Companies are bankrupt.

Among the very few Companies that have come out of the terrible ordeal at Chicago, safe and sound, is

THE STAUNCH OLD BULWARK,
The Insurance Co. of North America
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

CASH ASSETS, over and above CHICAGO LOSSES,

$2,700,000!

In consequence of the low rates prevailing in Chicago, this Company has done a limited business there for a year or two, and the result is, the entire losses by the Great Fire do not exceed half a million dollars, not one-half of the net surplus over all liabilities. This is the result of the Company's prudence in refusing to do business at ruinous rates.

Those seeking reliable insurance should secure policies in the

Solid Old North America

Having successfully withstood the calamities and vicissitudes of Seventy-seven Years, paying losses in that time amounting to over Twenty-five Million Dollars, it is a proud satisfaction for this grand Old Company, in this hour of terrible disaster, to bear aloft the Old, Time-honored and Battle-scarred Banner, with the assuring inscription thereon of "Security and Indemnity."

For Policies in this Staunch and Trustworthy Company, apply to

R. C. STEELE, Agent.
